

Standing resolutions of the Executive Committee

(as at 30 September 2015)

That on dissolution of the group, the amount that remains after such dissolution and the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities shall be transferred to an organisation with similar purposes within Australia and New Zealand that is not carried on for the profit or gain of its individual members.

6 October 2005

All documents to be published beyond a chapter should be passed through the editorial committee for consideration.

6 October 2005

Chapters may offer student and associate memberships. The indicative rate for such a membership is $10, but each chapter can decide on an actual amount. The management and maintenance of such memberships is to be decided by individual chapters. In the case of conference registrations, the chapters may need to certify to the organising chapter that a student or associate membership is held.

The normal costs of operating the ASPG, to be determined by the Executive, shall be met from the membership fees of individual and corporate members, and shall include:

1. The ordinary costs of the office-bearers and auditor in discharging their duties.
2. The travel and accommodation costs for the annual conference of the President.
3. The travel and accommodation costs for the annual conference of the Editor of the Australasian Parliamentary Review.
4. Maintenance and other costs of the ASPG website.
5. Such other costs as are approved by the Executive and identified in the Treasurer's report to the Annual General Meeting.
