Chapter activities

The Chapter has hosted a number of discussion groups following lectures given as part of the Senate's occasional lecture series, including:

17/02/17	Professor Simon Jackman	Populism and Discontent: Comparing the United States and Australia
28/04/17	David Fricker	Government-Citizen Engagement in the Digital Age

The Chapter also hosted its AGM and end-of-year drinks on 9 December 2016.

Corporate membership votes at AGM

These votes will be exercised by:

- James Rees, House of Representatives; and
- David Skinner, Legislative Assembly for the ACT.

Finance

The Chapter remitted all membership fees—corporate (Senate, House of Representatives, and the Legislative Assembly for the ACT) and individual—to the Group during the financial year and therefore received $0 revenue.

During 2016-17, the chapter spent $129.00 on a website hosting fee and $320.18 on catering costs. As at 22 August 2017, the Chapters' bank account held $5,242.15.

I provide an assurance that these details are correct.
